

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	HUMAM101 Making Contemporary Western Australia: A Critical Review. Only the entry point (Mokare's role) and the capstone module are pre-determined and compulsory. All the choices in between are open to the students. Upon successful completion of the unit, students will be able to 1) identify and explain key events of WA's past 200 years; 2) analyse and critically evaluate the role of historical figures in shaping WA's past, present and future; 3) work independently to explore and critically assess the lives and legacies of at least one male and one female historical figure.
Certified learning	(1) identify and explain key events of WA's past 200 years; (2) analyse and critically evaluate the role of historical figures in shaping WA's past, present and future; and (3) work independently to explore and critically assess the lives and legacies of at least one male and one female historical figure..
How learner participated	Online only
Effort required (indicative)	55
Main assessment task	Testing recall of facts, Application of multiple skills to routine problems, Application of multiple skills to complex problems
Indicative equivalent level	Undergraduate
Industry recognition	N/a
Quality assurance	The quality of UWA Plus micro-credentials is assured through The University of Western Australia's standards and academic integrity processes.
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:	2
. Admission to an award course	No
. Credit towards an award course	Yes
. If yes, how much credit?	Credit is less than one unit
